We proceed our progress with the POSITIVE THINKING policy that is "Everything is possible by H & B. " We offer the gorgeous products and marvelous services proposed by the proficient and competent designers with more than two decades experience. Our products are wholeheartedly produced for responding the satisfaction of our customers. Therefore, the "
Happy and beautiful
" concept had been the principle of our organization. Consequent, this is the origin of H&B proceeding under the quality policy of ISO 9001:2008
as follows:

The H & B INTERTEX is the manufacturer of plush and stuffed toy, household products, and automobile accessories. We endeavor to apply the quality management system of ISO 9001:2008 with the development of our company according to the progress management standard as follows:

- We will design and develop the commodities as the stipulation with the customers.
- We will proceed the qualified products and consign to the customers under the agreement to acquire the customers' satisfaction.
- We will distribute the resources well to achieve the determined objectives especially the adequate human resources and develop the skill and competence continuously.
- We will develop, examine and evaluate the procedure continuously.
- We will analyze and revise continuously the management process to provide the improvement.
- We will comply with the laws, the principles, and the rules strictly.
- We will communicate and pass on the policy and other information of management system to the related employees. Furthermore, we will encourage the employees to be the participants to take action and to present the opinion towards the quality policy.